Tuxedo Park Poster Bed with Canopy, Queen

Dorothy Draper Collection

This bed is a reproduction of the bed that Dorothy Draper designed for her own bedroom at The Carlyle in New York. We have added an upholstered panel just below the trellis to add comfort. Dorothy Draper said, "You may concentrate on appearances all through the rest of your house, but in the bedroom comfort should be supreme." The poster bed is available in all painted lacquers and wood finishes. There are several versions available to suit your style: Poster Bed with finials, no canopy, 189-500, Low Front Posts, 189-502, and Low Foot board, no front posts, 189-503. Valance, draperies and bed skirts, not included in price.
